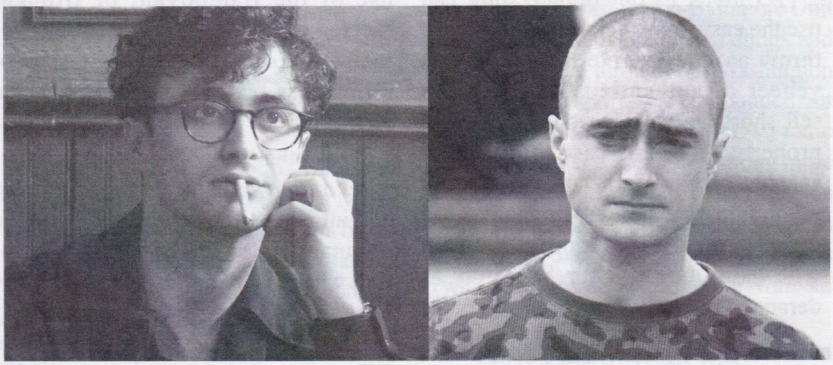
Hollywood Offer

Chairman William White Williams, as President of National Vanguard Books, was approached this month by Dan Ragussis, the Jewish director and co-writer of an upcoming Hollywood film, Imperium, that is currently in production and due for release in theaters sometime in 2016. The film is a "docudrama" supposedly based on the exploits of an FBI Special Agent with the improbable name of Michael German, who supposedly infiltrated a west coast "neo-Nazi" skinhead group in 1992 and foiled some sort of sinister plot. German, who was later dismissed from the FBI after 16 years as a G-Man, is co-writer of the screenplay with Ragussis. There is an extensive interview with German on the Southern Poverty Law Center's Web site.

Mr. Ragussis wants to use National Vanguard Books' The Turner Diaries as a prop in his movie. At first he also wanted to use our Which Way, Western Man? as a prop, but went ahead and made a mock book cover with the title Which Way, European Man? instead, so the film's producers wouldn't have to pay National Vanguard Books for the right to use the book. An offer of $1,000 was made for the use of The Turner Diaries and Chairman Williams countered with $5,000. Ragussis then



NO LONGER CHERUBIC: Half-Jewish actor Daniel Radcliffe (26), left, best known for his portrayal of Harry Potter in the children's film series of the same name, is shown at right in his latest role in the movie Imperium, pretending to be a G-man who is pretending to be a skinhead who infiltrates "White supremacists." Imperium's director approached the Alliance, hoping to use The Turner Diaries in the film.

Jewish director Daniel Ragussis offered $2,000 and the Chairman countered with $2,500 and told him, "If you don't want to meet that price, then make another phony book cover and call it The Tompkins Diaries." There has been no further response from Ragussis at this writing. The film is currently being shot in Hopewell and Richmond, Virginia. Its very title, by the way, is lifted from Francis Parker Yockey's great book of the same name.

As much as our organization can use the easy money Hollywood moguls throw around to give their movies a veneer of authenticity, we will not sell short the value of our intellectual property — in this case the fictional account of Earl Turner in Dr. Pierce's revolutionary classic — for Hollywood to use as they lump our organization in with those they will surely portray as deranged domestic terrorists.

White Biocentrism Forum

For like-minded kinsmen with computers, an interactive forum was set up some 27 months ago at Chairman Williams' request. The forum, called White Biocentrism (WB), can be found at http://whitebiocentrism.com. A number of Alliance members and supporters, as well as newcomers, use WB though it is still relatively small and not yet developed to its full potential. The Alliance is looking for more members to join and participate.

Unlike other pro-White forums, WB does not allow gratuitous vulgarity, useless trolls, attacks on others, or bickering from anonymous, disruptive critics. Several people who discovered WB over the last two years have joined our Alliance as either members or supporters, and the potential exists to recruit many more — if our members will help get the word out and participate themselves. Alliance members and supporters with computers and a little spare time are encouraged to sign up and participate.

We request that new registrants use normal-sounding user names. We don't encourage the use of the flamboyant or flippant "screen names" seen on most other forums, since such names indicate a lack of seriousness, which is the opposite of the impression we wish to make on readers.

Read the White Biocentrism Statement of Purpose and Rules for Posting and introduce yourselves to others. We originally styled WB as a mentoring forum where newcomers interested in the National Alliance can be brought along by those of us with more experience. WB can be a helpful aid for networking and community building.

A small part of the front page of our White Biocentrism forum. The Alliance needs volunteers to post content on the forum, interact with newcomers who need information and mentoring, and make this part of our White community grow and prosper. White Biocentrism does not tolerate the negativism, rumor-mongering, and vulgarity that infects so many other online forums. Its URL is http://whitebiocentrism.com

Introducing Our Media Director

Kevin Alfred Strom, 59, a father of three and engaged to be married to Vanessa Neubauer (profiled in the May BULLETIN), serves as the Alliance's Media Director. Chairman Williams has described him as "the ideological backbone of the National Alliance." He began working with the Alliance and Dr. Pierce in 1982 at the age of 26. Prior to his work with the Alliance he studied at George Mason University and was employed as a broadcast engineer. He worked in the National Office from 1982 onwards, participating in the creation of National Vanguard Books, the move to The Land in 1985 (where he became a full-time staffer in 1991), and many other important projects — including the design and construction of the Alliance's communications and security systems. For some years prior to his move to The Land, he was the Coordinator of the Alliance's Washington-Baltimore Unit and handled the Alliance's mailings and correspondence through our Washington and Arlington addresses. He founded our American Dissident Voices (ADV) radio program, which is still going strong more than two decades later, in 1991, and in 1995 founded Free Speech magazine as a venue for the publication of ADV texts (which are now published on our National Vanguard Web site).

Mr. Strom worked with Dr. Pierce on a daily or almost-daily basis for twenty continuous years. In July 2002, he was chosen personally by Dr. Pierce to be the National Alliance's Media Director, the host of ADV, and the editor and publisher of Free Speech, National Vanguard magazine, and the National Alliance BULLETIN. Commenting on Kevin Strom's media work, Dr. Pierce once remarked to Marta Streed, "Kevin gave me my voice."

During the dark Gliebe years, Mr. Strom kept the work of the Alliance and the ideology of Dr. Pierce alive on the National Vanguard Web site, for which he wrote and edited continuously, despite being imprisoned by the federal government on politically-motivated false charges for 19 months. He survived the ordeal and has come back stronger than ever.

When Chairman Williams' efforts to rebuild the Alliance began to move significantly forward in 2013, Mr. Strom was the natural choice for a partner in leadership. Mr. Williams stated "I cannot imagine the National Alliance without Kevin Alfred Strom."

In a 2012 interview, Mr. Strom talked about the importance of Dr. Pierce's vision:

William Pierce understood what only one in 100,000 men understand: We are a part of the evolving consciousness of the Universe, and, at our current level of development, the continued evolution of that consciousness is the purpose of Life.

And he understood that the survival and advancement of our kind, our race, is an absolute prerequisite for the achievement of that purpose. William Pierce accepted his personal responsibility to advance that purpose. Unlike almost all others, he did not shirk it. I've never seen a man work harder.

Almost broke and with the power of the regime in Washington and the billionaire oligarchs arrayed against his every move, he stared at a rocky hillside and saw — where others saw only weeds and brambles — homes and buildings where a multimedia production team would teach a fresh generation of workers, fighters, and philosophers how to build a whole new world. And he worked hard as Hell — and cajoled and inspired others to work until they could work no more — and he made it happen.

He added some words of advice for all of us:

The best thing that we can do is to grow so much that the System can't put us all in prison. Put everything on the line to do this.

Work to build a consciousness of resistance and refusal, of secession from the regime and creation of new nations. Dream of a day when two hundred million Whites will refuse to recognize the regime that is killing us — will stop sending their sons and daughters to die for it — will laugh at its war propaganda — will stop designing weapons and spy technology for it — will refuse to contribute one dime to it and will accept voluntary poverty and barter to deny it its "taxes."

Have courage and work hard — speak out relentlessly and truthfully. Never give up.

Correspondence

Dear Chairman, I just received your most recent BULLETIN. I'm happy to get the continual updates on the progress that is being made in rebuilding the Alliance. I apologize for not making a donation

KEVIN STROM, center, receives accolades for the publication of The Best of Attack! and National Vanguard Tabloid, which he had just edited and published when this photograph was taken at the September, 1984 General Convention of the National Alliance in Arlington, Virginia. At left is the late Dr. Herbert Poinsett, who also spoke at the convention.

in September. However, I do plan on making a donation in about ten days from now. Reading our pamphlets make me feel what it would be like living in a White world, as opposed to this multicultural hell in Queens, NY. It would be nice to get a way from here for a while, but for economic reasons I have to deal with this for the time being. Anyway hope everything is going well; keep up the good work. Sincerely, — D.O., New York

Dear Lana Williams: I'd like to start automated payments for my dues but I will continue to send cheques for extra support.

I am so happy you and Will are putting the NA back together. It's also very encouraging that Fred and Marta Streed have offered their crucial support, again!! Please give them and Kevin Strom my kindest regards.

I've been putting the NA cards in library books here, and we have a lot of libraries; have also been making copies of the flyer and leaving it in several places.

We need a real Cosmotheist church to attend here. I can't take the Semitic superstition anymore. For our People! — J.H., Arizona

Hello Chairman: I sent off my next dues today, with the additional $10 as usual...

It's annoying and dismaying to hear that the NARRG thing is still draining time and resources from the organization. I checked out their site and they are definitely not big fans of you and Kevin. I wonder if their persistence might be a case of "lawfare." I've heard that sometimes lawsuits that can't be won are filed just to eat up the opposition's time and resources. I do hope it will end soon. It's clear that it's stressful to you. — D.S., New Mexico

Chairman Williams, I will do whatever I can to help you keep the Alliance afloat. Please let me know if there is anything more I can do. Respectfully, — G.W., Virginia

Chairman Williams responds: That's the spirit, GW! Your generosity with donations over this past year has helped keep things afloat, believe me. D.S. in New Mexico is 100 per cent. correct in his observation about NARRG's "lawfare" waged against our Alliance this year. (Lawfare is a recently coined word, a portmanteau of the words law and warfare, asserted by some to be the illegitimate use of law with the intention of financially crippling an opponent, or tying up the opponent's time so he cannot pursue other ventures.) Endless filings and motions to the court to keep their now irrelevant lawsuit going — long after it served its purpose to get Erich Gliebe to step down as Chairman so that the Board could choose a successor — have cost me a great deal of time and money that could have been much better spent on productive work for our Alliance. At the end of September, as reported in the last BULLETIN, our attorney filed a long answer to NARRG's original claim against Mr. Gliebe because Gliebe had failed to do so previously. We also filed time-consuming motions to quash subpoenas NARRG had filed against four outside institutions (including our banks) for old Alliance records. This month we met a deadline to produce what turned out to be 1,800 pages of records so as not to be held in contempt of court. That's done, so now we seek a date to have our Motion to Dismiss heard to put an end to this NARRG nonsense once and for all. We will keep our members and supporters posted on this in upcoming BULLETINs.

Letter from Richard Scutari

Richard J. Scutari, an honorary Alliance member since 1993, has been in prison for 30 years, half of his 60-year sentence for his role in the group The Order, or Bruder Schweigen (Silent Brotherhood) back in the mid-1980s. Scutari had been put in charge of the revolutionary group's security by its leader Robert Mathews, a former National Alliance member. (A halfway objective story of The Order can be read in the book, Silent Brotherhood, available on Amazon.com. Unbroken Warrior: The Richard Scutari Letters can also be purchased on Amazon.)

The NARRG grouplet of former Alliance members posted a letter from Mr. Scutari in June of 2013 at their blog, wherein he encouraged them in opposing Erich Gliebe. Lots of former Alliance members encouraged NARRG back then because they had had enough of Gliebe's mismanagement of our organization. Many of those have reconsidered, including Mr. Scutari, who sent our office the following letter, dated October 17:

Dear Will: Greetings, kinsman! I hope this finds all going well for you. Thanks for honoring the honorary membership Dr. Pierce bestowed on me years ago. The past several NA BULLETINs have been a breath of fresh air in here. The information about Jost Turner was very informative. Jost and I corresponded on a regular basis from 1990 until his untimely passing. I still teach the Path of Wotan in here. I was fully aware of the Hollywood Nazis' destruction of all the good will Jost established in the local community, [though] he never told me who they were. Thanks for putting that information in the BULLETIN.

Speaking of Jim Ring, I only shared a couple of letters with him and those were all from months before my last letter to you. In your response to my first letter you quoted something I wrote to Jim Ring that went something like this: "I will support whoever is strong enough to take over the Chairman position and continue the NA on the path set by Dr. Pierce." You have proven, by your actions and not mere words, to be that person. I am very impressed with what you have accomplished in such a short time — so impressed that I believe the National Alliance will be back as strong as ever in another year or two under your leadership. Everyone who truly cares about Dr. Pierce's legacy should join forces under your leadership and help to rebuild the Alliance.

With that said, I must give credit to Jim Ring and his comrades for stopping Erich [Gliebe] from completely destroying the NA. But it is you who stepped in and grabbed the reins and turned things around. It is time Ring and the others drop their lawsuit and give you their support. To do otherwise would turn the reasons given for the lawsuit in the first place into a farce.

On November 2nd the fifteen-year hit the parole commission gave me is up. I'm scheduled for a hearing on that date at which I'll either be granted parole or be told to do it all. Needless to say, I'm a bit antsy and getting more so as the date gets closer. I believe there is an 85 to 90% chance of my being paroled. It's the other 10 to 15% that has me antsy.

With that, I'm gone. Give my regards to all. I wish you all the best. 14 Words, — Richard [Scutari], Louisiana

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

Lawfare and Yellow Journalism

We hope Richard Scutari is granted his parole by the time he reads these words in this BULLETIN. It is an honor to receive correspondence, to say nothing of support, from such a man. It was I, in my role as National Alliance Membership Coordinator all those years ago, who arranged for the then-New York Metro Local Unit to sponsor Richard and pay his dues.

Richard told me in a letter earlier this year that Jim Ring (leader of the NARRG grouplet) had mailed him a clipping from Willis Carto's American Free Press (AFP) tabloid. (Carto is an irresponsible right-wing mailing-list operator who repeatedly accused Dr. Pierce of being an "FBI asset" in his Spotlight newspaper, predecessor to the current AFP. Now Ring and company are working closely with Carto.)

There have been at least four articles in Carto's AFP so far this year smearing me, Kevin Strom, and our Alliance — with all of the lurid falsehoods in them taken directly from NARRG blog articles. I protested to the AFP editor by email (no phone number was available), politely requesting my right of reply to the articles that were attacking us, violating our copyrighted name, symbol, and other material, and grossly misrepresenting the NARRG lawsuit against Erich Gliebe, into which our Alliance has now been dragged. No response was received and at least one more hit piece on our organization has been published since then. NARRG boasts of how "tens of thousands of AFP readers" will read these smears, which will then help them raise more funds to conduct their dishonorable war against our organization.

A NARRG display advertisement appears right next to the hit piece, proclaiming in large type "It's time to rebuild the National Alliance." I am rebuilding the National Alliance just fine, no thanks to the NARRGsters, and so far with my own savings and without soliciting funds from our members to defend against their insidious, destructive lawfare.

It is not just to Richard Scutari that Mr. Ring has written and sent AFP articles in order to "prove" how "successful" their destructive, wasteful campaign is. Ring was very close to Erich Gliebe during the entire decline of the National Alliance after the death of Dr. Pierce. He brags publicly that he wrote articles for every issue of National Vanguard magazine during Gliebe's destructive

Dear Chairman Williams, Sir:

Thank you for the copy of Building a New White World — and congratulations to you and your staff on a professional piece of work. Quite impressive.

Read something in the American Free Press regarding the legal imbroglio. Appears to be a judicial quagmire. Unfortunately I will not be re-establishing my membership in the National Alliance — after due thought and consideration.

Best of luck to you and your assistants

Gee, thanks! Best of luck with the judicial quagmire, eh?

reign and even that he wrote most of the BULLETINs during that period of decline — which is nothing to boast about, by the way.

Jim Ring knows full well who the Alliance's biggest donors were during the Gliebe era and it is at those individuals his campaign of character assassination of us has been mostly directed with so many AFP clippings, letters, emails, and phone calls. I have received numerous reports from loyalists about this ignominious whispering campaign. The particular member who wrote the note shown above does not use the Internet. He was one of the most generous Alliance members at one time, pledging as much as $650 per month soon after Dr. Pierce's death, down to a still generous $150 per month in 2014. He has withheld his pledge this year, thanks to Ring's smears of us, including at least one phone call from Dr. Pierce's elderly brother, Sanders, who remains a NARRG co-plaintiff, and who, unfortunately, is used more or less by Ring as a prop because of his last name.

The ambitious Ring made known, in several of his long articles in 2013, his desire to replace Gliebe as National Alliance Chairman. He'll say almost anything, even the most absurd or obviously false, to fan the flagging enthusiasm of his donor list. I just saw a comment by him on his blog, dated October 25, in which he "explains" his opposition to me by saying "Williams craves attention" — that it's my "big ego" that is NARRG's real objection and the reason for the continuation of the lawsuit. Comment would be superfluous.

Some would say I am sounding like quite the whiner, complaining about the NARRG lawsuit again. But these irresponsible, self-interested individuals have caused substantial harm to the National Alliance in 2015 as we try so hard to rebuild.

At least three Alliance supporters who subscribe to the American Free Press have told me they will write letters of protest to that paper for its one-sided misreporting on the NARRG lawsuit against the National Alliance. I encourage any other members who subscribe to that paper to do the same. We're not "tens of thousands," but it only takes a few to make the AFP wheel squeak enough to get their attention. If their editors have any sense of fairness or responsibility, they will give me space to respond to their paper's transparent hit pieces. W. W. W.
